COLLEGE OF DIETITIANS OF ALBERTA - REGISTRATION PATHWAY FOR COURTESY APPLICANTS

Applications to the Courtesy Register accommodate Registered Dietitians who are temporarily in Alberta for employment, education, teaching or research purposes and who are currently registered in good standing with another Canadian Dietetic Regulator.

APPLICATION ASSESSMENT REGISTRATION DECISION REGISTRATION

1-3 business days to review application.

1-3 business days to process registration.

Applicant submits an online application along with required documents

Fee: $52.50

Once submitted,

College reviews application for completeness

If complete,

College reviews application to confirm eligibility for registration

Registration Decision: Eligible for Registration *

If eligible for registration,

Courtesy Registration for practice in Alberta

Fee determined by length of registration **

GREY boxes require action by the applicant.

BLUE text shows timelines.

GREEN text shows associated fees.

BROWN text shows transition steps.

- * Applicant must retain active registration with province of initial registration for duration of registration with CDA.
- For each month of registration, fee is $52.50 (to a maximum of 6 months)

If not met,

Written Interim Registration
Decision provided to applicant:
Registration denied with reasons

If applicant appeals decision,

Applicant initiates appeal of registration decision

Within 30 days Fee: $262.50

Followed by,

Appeal decision on application by Council

 Written decision and reason of appeal are communicated to applicant

Up to 90 days

College of Dietitians of Alberta | Phone: (780) 448-0059 | Email: execasst@collegeofdietitians.ab.ca | Website: www.collegeofdietitians.ab.ca